

Are you the perfect ambassador for Planetary and our core messages? Are you a star looking to take your voice to the next level? Are you a student taking action for the planet and would like to feature alongside the likes of David Attenborough and Greta Thunberg?

If so, Planetary is looking for you...

Please complete the form below to feature on our page – all applications as a Planetary Person will be considered!

Name:

Photo:

Occupation:

Planetary title: (Hero, Changemaker, Star, Supporter)

Links: (include any social media/web links that you would like for us to display)

Statement: (about your environmental thoughts/activities)

Your message: (to the Planetary audience)

Which Planetary title should I select?

Hero – An everyday person (adult, teen or child!) taking great action for our Planet. Perhaps you have started a local campaign, eco-group at school, or taken time to fundraise. This category is our most important category, because its Your World, Your Future!

Changemaker – If you're a scientist with a ground-breaking invention, educator with environmental expertise, or have made ripples in policy, law or global change, apply as a Planetary Changemaker!

Star – Are you already in the media spotlight and want to use your voice for the planet? Are you a celebrity and already have your own eco projects and would like to collaborate with Planetary? We are looking for Planetary Stars to feature alongside our Heroes and Changemakers and act as role models for our Planet.

Supporter – Can you help to support Planetary and our message using your voice, fundraising or donations? We welcome any support available and would like to thank you by featuring you as a Planetary Supporter!